

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday December 31. to Monday January 4. 1685.

Genova, Decemb. 8.

THE Prince de Monaco arrived here on Wednesday last; He is lodged in the Convent of the Camelites, where he has been Complimented on the part of the Republick. The 6th Instant parted from hence one of this States Gallies for Marseilles, to bring from thence the Marquis de Marini, late Envoy Extraordinary from this Republick at the Court of France. The Governor of Milan is expected here against the Carnival. We have an account from Rome, that the Pope has granted the Tenth of the Ecclesiastical Revenues in Spain for the War against the Turks.

Naples, Decemb. 5. The 2d instant arrived in this Port the Spanish Gallies, 21 in number, which are to winter here. The Resident of Venice has demanded of our Viceroy, that in pursuance of the Leave obtained by the Venetian Ambassador at Madrid, he may make in this Kingdom a Levy of 2000 Men for the Service of that Republick, but the Orders from the Court of Spain not being positive in this matter, his Excellency has not yet given any Answer therein. His Excellency has received directions from Madrid, to remit 50000 Crowns to the Governor of Milan. The Fort built in the Province of Abruzzo, to stop the Incursions of the Banditti, is quite finished, and 200 Spaniards are put into it.

Venice, Decemb. 21. The Senate have, we are told, made an agreement with the Princes of Lunenburg for 4000 Foot, which are to march to Trieste, to embark there. Part of the Troops, for which they have treated with the Governor of Milan, arrived in the beginning of this week at the Lido, and the rest are expected in few days. Count Coningmarke who is to command the Forces of this State, under the Captain General, is expected here the next Month, by which time he hopes, as he has written hither, the Levy he is making for the service of the Republick will be compleated. The Count de Lodron, General of the Croats, is now here, with several other Officers who came with him to serve the Republick. Signior Cornaro is preparing for his departure for Dalmatia, being to succeed Signior Pietro Valier as Provveditor General of that Province; The last Letters we had from thence, informed us, that the Turks had had a design upon Cattaro, but had not succeeded in it. We have advice from the Morea, that Ismael Bassa had of late appeared several times with strong Parties of Horse in the Neighborhood of Coron, but that the Garrison of that place had as often sallied out upon them, and obliged them to retire. And that the Bacha of Romania having sent an Aga to endeavor to regain the Mainotes, who have put themselves under the Protection of the Republick, by promising them an Exemption for Five years from all manner of Contributions, they had given him a very ill Reception, having cut off his Ears, Nose and Lips, to shew how little they thought of returning under the Obedience of the Grand Signior. The Duke of Mantua is gone home, but it's believed will be here again against the Carnival. The Count de St. Paul is going to quit the Command he has in the Service of the Republick, the ill state of his health making him desirous to retire from Publick Employment.

Warsaw, Decemb. 15. The Forces of this Crown are gone into their Winter-quarters, having suffered very much for the short time they were in the Field through the want of Provisions, as well as through the continual Skirmishes they had with the Enemy for 12 days together. The Officers have Orders to recruit their respective Companies; And we are told that several new Regiments will be raised. The Tartars make frequent Incursions into the Province of Volhinia. The Seraskier Solyma has put his Troops into Winter-quarters in Valachia.

Vienna, Decemb. 23. Frequent Councils are held here, at which the Emperor is for the most part present, to regulate the Operations of the approaching Campaign, which will be begun much earlier than the last, by the help of the great Magazines that are providing at Comorra, and other places, for the subsistence of the Troops. The Expresses that were sent to Poland and Venice with the Proposals of Peace made by the Turkish Aga at Comorra, being come back with the Resolutions of that King and the Republick thereupon, the said Aga will now be dispatched with an Answer in the Name of all the Allies. They write from Zolnocke, that the Baron de Mercy having received advice that the Turks of Gyula had fallen upon an Imperial Convoy that was going to Saravus, he immediately sent out a strong Detachment under the Command of Colonel Heusler, who coming up with the Enemy, had a very sharp Dispute with them, in which, it's said, 2000 of the Enemy were slain, and that the rest retired in great disorder towards Gyula, being pursued by the Imperialists, but this account, though it comes from several hands, still needs a Confirmation. The Advices concerning Teckelej are very different, but the best account we have, is, that he is still at Belgrade, kept there under a Guard, but with more favour and liberty than he was at first, and that he may hope to be yet better treated, if the Proposals the Turks have made for a Peace be rejected by the Emperor. The Prince of Transylvania offers to furnish Provisions and Forage for the subsistence of the Garrisons of Zolnocke, Saravus, St. Nicholas, and some other places on that side, upon condition his Country may be eased of the Imperial Troops that have taken their Winter-quarters there under the Command of General Caraffa. Cardinal Bonvisi, the Pope's Nun-